dee, and a Mussulman that I established myself in Egypt; It was by becoming ultramontane that I won over public opinion in Italy. If I ruled a people of Jews, I would rebuild the temple of Solomon! Paradise is a central spot whither the souls of men proceed along different roads; every sect has a road of its own.

September 6th. A monument shall be erected to the memory of Generals Desaix and Kleber, who died on the same day, at the same moment: one in Europe, at the battle of Marengo, which reconquered Italy for the Republic; the other in Africa, after the battle of Heliopolis, which reconquered Egypt for France.

7th. The King is at Mittau; let him stay there!

(To the Comte de Provence (Louis XVIII).) I have received your letter, sir, and I thank you for the polite expressions it contains. You must give up all hope of returning to France; you would have to step over 100,000 dead bodies. Sacrifice your personal interest to the peace and happiness of France. History will remember you for it. I am not unmindful of the misfortunes of your family. I would be glad to contribute to the comfort and security of your retirement.

My poor Cambac6res, I can't help it, but your case is clear; if ever the Bourbons return, you will be hanged!

10th. (To Lucien Bonaparte, Minister of the Interior.)
